BUSINESS LOCALS.

A good American boy is wanted at the Oahu Railroad News Stand.
All the late books—largest stock in town, popular prices. Wm. C. Lyon Co., Ltd.

Fred Harrison has a lot of fine garden soil for sale; can be seen by calling at the McLean building on Nuuanu St.
Valuable real estate in Iwilei offered for sale on easy terms. See W. O. Smith in Judd building for particulars.
"Old Sol" furnishes warm weather. Primo lager is the antidote. Cool your equator with primo and you will be happy all the day long.

After dengue one needs a good bracing tonic. There is nothing better than the well known Royal Malt Extract sold by the Hobron Drug Co.

Crystal Springs butter is fresh as the clover blossom and sweet as new mown hay. Every pound is guaranteed when bought from Metropolitan Meat Co.

Auction sale of ferns, palms and fine plants for decoration on Thursday, Sept. 17th at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. E. M. Taylor, No. 730 Kinau street.

It is an important matter—the fitting of glasses for the eyes, and requires the greatest care. Sanford, the optician, has an intimate knowledge of the eye and its needs.

I. De Tur's fine wines and brandies are celebrated throughout the world. The quality is the best and every bottle is guaranteed. H. Hackfeld & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

All the latest and best selling books can be found at the Young Building store of Hawaiian News Co. A monthly bulletin of the very latest publications can be obtained for the asking.

It costs nothing to have your eyes examined at H. F. Wichman's optical department. This department is devoted exclusively to optics, every thought and care to the eyes exclusively.

Ring up Hawaiian Electric Co. for an estimate on wiring your house for electric lighting. Don't put up with the annoyance and danger of kerosene lamps when incandescent lamps cost very little more.

A ladies' silk bag containing purse, thimble and fancy work was lost on the Rapid Transit cars last Saturday. Liberal reward will be given to the finder if same is returned to M. S. Grinbaum & Co.

The Golden Rule Bazaar begins today to close out their entire stock. They are giving from 20 to 30 per cent discount off on everything. This will be a good time to buy books and lay them aside for the holidays.

Auction sale of fine household furniture today at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. F. Davey at 1548 Magazine street. A fine lot of oil paintings and steel engravings will be included in the list of articles to be sold.

Maternity Home Luau.

The luau and bazaar in aid of the Kaplan Maternity Home to be given on the premises of the Home the first week in October, promises to have the same measure of success as those given in past years. The sale of tickets and promises of edibles and objects for disposal in the booths, has been satisfactory thus far to the promoters. Persons on the other islands who desire to contribute foodstuffs for the luau are requested to communicate with Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, the treasurer, and to have the same here the last week of this month. Perishable stuffs will be taken care of promptly on arrival.
The luau and bazaar will be held in the afternoon, the tickets of admission entitling the holders to partake of the luau. A dance will be given in the evening for which another admission fee will be charged.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Nigel Jackson is after a return match with Oscar Kreuter.

Sorenson & Lyle's new yacht was launched yesterday.

M. F. Prosser returns to Kauai today in the steamer W. G. Hall.

Oahu College opened yesterday morning with an attendance of 280.

The next mail from the Coast arrives on the Gaelic on Thursday evening.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their monthly meeting at Central Union parlors this afternoon.

Excelsior Lodge will hold their regular weekly meeting tonight in Elks' hall. Work in the third degree.

Saturday, Sept. 19th, (Regatta day,) being a legal holiday, the Governor directs that all public offices be closed.

Supt. Cooper received a cable from Marston Campbell yesterday to the effect that he would arrive in the Sonoma.

C. J. McCarthy and J. M. Riggs have filed their oaths of office as jury commissioners for the First Judicial Circuit.

W. H. Babbitt received a cablegram yesterday announcing the death of his father, Rev. J. H. Babbitt, at Andover, Mass.

The annual meeting of the Honolulu Symphony Society will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Powhatan tribe No. 2 will hold their regular meeting tonight at San Antonio hall at which time the final adoption of the by-laws will be passed upon.

The Executive Council considered the application of the Standard Telephone Co. yesterday for a license. No further permission is to be granted to string wires overhead.

August G. Serrao, a leading business man of Hilo, died last Thursday at that place. Mr. Serrao leaves a wife and three children and has been an invalid for some time.

The remains of Mrs. Margaret Fehlberr will remain in the undertaking parlors of H. H. Williams until Wednesday morning where friends of the deceased may call.

Yee Kam Choy, who says he is a banana farmer, yesterday filed in the United States court a petition in bankruptcy. His assets are $571.25 and his liabilities are given as $1207.25.

The Friday evening social club will give a farewell dance on Thursday evening, Sept. 17th at San Antonio hall in honor of Mr. E. Pilgrim, the president, who will leave shortly for the Orient.

J. J. Dunne has resigned, or rather refused to accept the appointment as guardian of the Campbell minors. Judge Gear has taken under advisement the request of the executors for the appointment of A. F. Judd as guardian.

Roy H. Chamberlain, Internal Revenue Collector for Hawaii, accompanied by his family, will leave on the Alameda tomorrow for a visit to his old home in Iowa. He will go direct to Clarinda. Mrs. Chamberlain is a daughter of Congressman Hepburn, and most of their time will be spent at his home. Mr. Chamberlain expects to be gone about two months.

Ramon Maltina, Alfred Capa and Domingo, three Porto Ricans committed to the Circuit Court by the Waialua District Magistrate, were brought to the city prison yesterday. Capa had committed a larceny and when captured the officers found the young fellow had shaved his hair off with the exception of that covering the top of his skull. He endeavored to pass for a Chinaman.
